

eResources for the Chatham & Canaan Public Libraries

NEW AcornTV for Libraries is a premier online streaming service provider of world-class mysteries, dramas, and comedies from Britain and beyond, including a full slate of original and exclusive programming.

OverDrive is a free service offered by your library that lets you borrow digital content (like eBooks and audiobooks) anytime, anywhere. Every OverDrive collection is slightly different because each library picks the digital content they want for their users.

Access to the content from the Columbia

Register-Star and Chatham Courier newspapers from 2009 to the present.

ConsumerReports.org® — the largest paid-publication subscription-based website in the world — enables consumers to make better purchasing decisions on the products they are shopping for. Whether a user is looking to find the best deal on an LCD TV, or researching the top-recommended used vehicles, ConsumerReports.org provides ratings and reviews, recommendations and buying advice for thousands of products and services.

kanopy offers one of the most unique and compelling collections of film on the planet. Our films range from documentaries, indie and foreign films, must-see classics and blockbuster movies. Our sophisticated discovery engine encourages our users to challenge themselves to watch films outside of their comfort area.

RBdigital is the world's largest digital library newsstand, offers full-color, interactive digital magazines. Browse your library's collection of popular titles with no holds, no checkout periods, and no limit to the number of magazines you can download.

Library Elf is a free personal assistant who keeps track of your library holds and loans for you.

The link below leads to resources which have information you cannot access through a typical internet search, in fact they are available only to patrons of libraries where access has been purchased for them. These unique resources are provided by your library with state and local funds, and give you access to reliable online information.
